LIVE PC.....LEAD PC
Over Twenty Years And Still Connecting

What's Up With Elizabeth Hareza (20)

Originally from Pittsburgh, PA, Elizabeth Hareza (20) spent 5 years in Charlotte, NC before moving to Park City 5 years ago.

She had done a commercial real estate internship here while in college so was familiar with our town. "When I decided my heart was in the west, I thought Park City would be a great first stop. I was accepted into Leadership Park City after being here for about a year which introduced me to our incredible community and I couldn't imagine leaving after that experience."

Music is a great 'connector' of people and so is the Leadership Park City program. Elizabeth appreciates those connections. "LPC taught me how to create a safe environment where people from all backgrounds and beliefs could share their passions and feel respected. I used that idea of creating a safe space to grow the songwriter community in PC. The songwriter group I started with Bill McGinnis (24) another LPC alumni, is modeled loosely after the LPC program."

It Takes Two....Baby

A singer/songwriter/musician, Elizabeth has recently teamed up with Aaron English and they are taking their music on the road. In 2017, as a duo project 'English & Hareza' did a 2 month tour of Europe, performing nearly every day in cities across The Netherlands, Germany, Belgium, France, Austria, Scotland and England. Aaron English, a singer/songwriter from Seattle, WA had already planned the tour and invited Elizabeth to join in.

"Aaron has been touring and composing music for decades," explained Elizabeth. "In 2015, he founded The International Youth Music Project, a 501(c)(3) that provides music opportunities for disadvantaged youth around the world. Aaron and I connected at the FAR-West Music Conference held in Bellevue, WA in October 2016. We were instant fans of each other's music and have spent nearly every day together since. He moved to Park City in March, 2017, we packed all our belongings into a storage unit and have gone between touring and staying with friends while we are home in Park City."

Songwriters Support Each Other

They are both independent songwriters, working on solo projects and projects with other artists around the world, but their focus this year has been on developing their duo, English & Hareza. They'll spend the spring of 2018 writing new music and preparing to record their first album together and heading east to tour for at least a month. "So far, we have performances confirmed in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, PA, Washington D.C., Charlotte, NC, Kansas City, KS, and St. Louis, MO. We'll also make a stop in Nashville for a few days of writing and connecting with the songwriter community. We are deep in the booking process of this tour and are working to schedule 5-10 more shows before we head out."

When she is home in Park City, Elizabeth runs meet-ups for area songwriters. <https://www.elizabethhareza.com/utah-utah-songwriters-group> "It's always a joy to connect with other songwriter support groups around the world. We have met many talented artists and made wonderful connections through a group in Amsterdam and others like it."

Best of luck as you hit the road, Elizabeth.

As always, we'll look forward to having you back home in Park City.

LPCA LEADS THE WAY! Pledging To Support KPCW

Big, big THANK YOU to all of the wonderful volunteers who donated their time to KPCW'S Winter Pledge Drive on Thursday, March 1 from 7-8 am and to all the LPCA who called in and pledged.

To say alumni "brought our A Game" would be an understatement. In an effort to show our support for our local community radio station which truly gives back to everyone.... we made it our mission to ensure we had

March Speaker And Mix & Mingle!

LPCA MIX & MINGLE turned out to be a great event! The board really turned it on and welcomed all alumni to the library to gather and get ready for W. Mitchell's "It's not what happens to you, it's what you do about it" presentation. About 30 alumni attended and it was amazing. Thanks to The Park City Library team for allowing us to use the beautiful room- such great views of Park City and just the perfect location. Also, thanks to Savoury Kitchen, Deer Valley Resort, Uinta Brewery and Lydia Rupnow for providing such strong radio presence as well as friendly and passionate leaders taking calls in the booth.

Thank you to Myles Rademan Colleen McGinn (23), Sara Jo Dickens (23), Josh Hobson (24) and Kellee Reed (24) for dominating the air waves. You were the key to our success by keeping the momentum going ensuring the phones rang. By sharing the leadership message you inspired callers to ring up and donate to KPCW.

Leadership Team Rocks!

Thank you to our friends taking calls, Carolyn Wawra (20), Chris Neville (23), Tom Horton (23) and Lydia Rupnow (23) for answering those calls.

Leadership Park City technically WON the nonprofit underwriting contest with the greatest number of unique donors with a total of 54 calls raising $3,980.

Since Leadership already has free PSAs/underwriting....the prize was awarded to our second runner up, People's Health Clinic.

We look forward to the KPCW Summer Pledge Drive and a chance to be the leaders in showing our support for our local air waves.
