Look For LPCA At August Deer Valley Wednesday Concerts

Look for the Leadership Park City banner when you attend the free Wednesday concerts at Deer Valley in August. Someone from LPCA will be saving some space and the banner will mark the spot. We'll try to keep the banner up until at least 6:30.

If you happen to see folks you think would be a good match for the program....invite them over to get a flyer about the program.

Here's our host list. Please come out and join us. Feel free to put your blanket/chairs in our space or just stop by to chat.

Support E Bus & E Bike

Leadership alumni serving on both City and County Councils (see above) are serving us well. If you haven't already tried the new E bus connection from Kimball Junction Transit Center into Old Town.....do it soon! It is an awesome way to cut down on traffic and eliminate the hassle of hunting or paying for parking in town. Consider it the perfect way to go in for Park City Silly Sunday Market or Locals' Night at the upcoming Kimball Arts Festival. The buses have wifi and charging ports and appear every 10 minutes. Thanks councils.....this is an awesome addition to our transit system.

For those of you wanting to feel the wind in your face.....try out the E Bike Share program. <http://www.parkrecord.com/news/summit-county/summit-county-launches-nations-first-all-electric-bike-share-program/>

LOVE ARTS & CULTURE?

Project ABC needs to hear your needs, wants, ideas, and feedback. Hadley Dynak (21), Executive Director of PC Arts Council, requests you take the Project ABC survey today!

Project ABC is a community-wide, cultural planning effort that will build a roadmap for the future of arts and culture in Park City, Snyderville Basin, and North and South Summit.

Now is a critical time for Arts and Culture in our community. Multiple nonprofits need capital improvements. Significant private development will include new creative and cultural amenities. The City and County have made arts and culture a top priority.

Managed by the Park City Summit County Arts Council in cooperation with a number of community partners from the government, nonprofit, business, creative, and philanthropic sectors, Project ABC will document collective needs and result in a series of action steps
