Alumni News

Congrats to Laura Suesser (21) who just got named to the Park City Planning Commission.

All the best to Beth Armstrong (20) who will be taking over as Executive Director of the People's Health Clinic when Nann Worel (15) steps down. LPC is proud of both of these accomplished

Pam Woll (11) grew up in Coral Gables, FL. She graduated from the University of Alabama in 1981 with a degree in advertising. She continued to live and work in Tuscaloosa until her, then-fiance Allen Woll, was recruited to start up a compact disc factory in Salt Lake City.

"We cot married at The Park City Community Church in March of 1998, over my daughter's spring break and then moved here to Park City the day after she finished first grade in Tuscaloosa."

Attracted by the magnetism of the mountains and this awesome community, it didn't take Pam long to realize she didn't want to leave this area. "I was an Olympic Volunteer for the 2002 Olympics, working in Press Operations at Deer Valley. A wonderful experience! So glad I stayed and did not flee like many Parkites did."

Pam's kids have grown up as Parkites. Her daughter Dolly Duke went all through Park City Schools, graduated from the University of Washington and then got her masters at Westminster College. "Dolly was a student teacher at her brother's high school the first quarter of this year."

Camden Woll is a junior and Varsity soccer player at Park City High School and was born at St. Marks' in Salt Lake City. Pam was proud to serve as his Scout leader for 5 years and thrilled he has earned his Eagle Scout Award.

Pam has managed to make some great and long-lasting friendships here as well. "A neat thing about Park City is that so many people are not from here so you make friends easily. I have a lot of great friends and a loyal group of 12 that started off playing Bunco 16 years ago and have been faithful ever since. We don't play Bunco anymore, but we DO have dinner together once a month and have gone on trips together to Palm Desert and Flaming Gorge and last fall we went on a cruise."

Following college graduation back in 1981, Pam began selling imprinted promotional products and is still involved in that business today. "I have

women and the service they give to our community.

Way to go....Kimberley Kuehn (13) on your Park Silly Sunday Market's 10th anniversary.

Outstanding performance, Madeline Knauer (21) during your HS career. Congrats on earning the Salutatorian spot.

It's difficult for me to know who is "in the news" when I'm on the road. If you ARE an alum in the news or if you KNOW of one who is....please pass the word. Thanks.

been selling promo items for The Swag Lounge at Whitney Advertising for 5 1/2 years and really love meeting with customers, getting to know them and figuring out their promotional needs."

As far as playing...Pam finds time for that too. "My favorite thing to do is hike and be outside with my dogs. Long-time dachshund owners and lovers, we have Heidi and Pippa who run our house."

Finishing up her term as PTSO President at PCHS, Pam will stay busy as she becomes the President of the PC Sunrise Rotary June 1. "I am a charter member of PC Sunrise which was back in 1999."

She is also an active member at Park City Com"munity Church and was on the Board of Summit Land Conservancy back when it was called COOL (Conserve Our Open Lands). "The famous Dana Williams served along with me before he was mayor."

When asked if she would encourage others to participate in Leadership Park City, she replied, "I loved my Leadership experience and our trip to Jackson Hole and Sun Valley. Being in Class 11 I was in the company of celebrities like Diane Foster, Larry Warren, Lyn Ware Peak and more....just can't name them all!"

Even though life in Park City is pretty fulfilling, Pam's family does have a special travel routine. Her parents, who live in Florida have a second home in the mountains of North Carolina. "That's what Floridians do, she explained. "and we spend July Fourth there every years!"

Plus, it's always good to have a bucket list handy. Pam has done a bike trip through Italy and hopes to do another bike trip in the future in some enchanting place yet to be determined.

Thanks, Pam for all you do to keep connected with Leadership and for all your efforts on our local boards and committees.
