Leadership Park City July 2015

Over 20 Years And Still Connecting LIVE PC.....LEAD PC

What's Up With Linda Jager (9)

Linda Jager (9) grew up an east coaster in Bayville, New York, which is the north shore of Long Island. She eventually made her way west, first, as far as Denver, Colorado. In 2000, Linda's husband, Scott, was recruited for a job in Salt Lake City so they, and daughters Molly (now 18) and Abby (now 16) became Parkites. Their Park City family also includes Rocky, the dog and Gatsby, the cat. "...and a dear group of longtime friends who have become 'family'," added Linda.

Linda is Director of Communications for the Park City Chamber of Commerce/Convention & Visitors Bureau. "I get to share and showcase all things Park City with Journalists to secure editorial coverage and increase visitation to our amazing year-round destination."

As you might imagine, there are many great aspects to a job like Linda's. What could be more fun than getting to show off all the best parts of the place you call home? "I love watching our visiting media fall in love with Park City and then share that enthusiasm in their coverage. I'm truly fortunate to work with a great team of Chamber members and staff who are equally as enthusiastic about sharing Park City with our visiting journalists."

Good Times

With so many choices of ways to spend leisure time, it isn't always easy to pick your favorites. For Linda, it is skiing with family and friends, hiking with her dog on Rob's trail and "...savoring those long Park City summer evenings with an outdoor dinner, a great bottle of wine and good friends."

Her Bucket List consists mostly of travel destinations and athletic adventures. "I've hiked a few 14ers in Colorado, finished a half-marathon, explored and worked in Europe, China, Russia, Mexico and most of the U.S., but the biggest items still to be checked off are visiting Iceland, Amsterdam and Portland, Oregon-places I'm intrigued to discover."

You may recognize Linda as being one of the Friday Film Reviewers at KPCW. An avid movie-goer, Indie films and documentaries are at the top of her list. "Some of my recent favorites are BOYHOOD, WHAT HAPPENED, MISS SIMONE?, THE WOLFPACK and DANNY COLLINS but my all time favorite is WHEN HARRY MET SALLY."

Great Experiences

Linda has had some great experiences while living in Park City and the Leadership Program was one of them. "I loved my experience with Leadership Park City. I had an amazing class and learned so much with Myles and Lisa at the helm. I'm friends with, and work with, so many of my classmates...even 12 years later."

Thanks to Linda and her team at the Chamber for letting the world know how lucky we are to be living in and loving our Park City.

Barbara Fontaine (3) was very active in the Park City Historical Society along with classmate, Sandra Morrison, who gave Barbara an excellent reference when she moved from Park City to Charlottesville, VA in 2007 and began guiding at Monticello, the home of Thomas Jefferson. "I love walking in the footsteps of our third President," says Barbara. "We, (she and husband Dick (5)) have enjoyed numerous European river trips with friends and I still give tea parties. We have a 'Nifty Fifty Party' coming up soon to celebrate our 50th wedding anniversary. My poodle skirt is ready!"

Barbara has had 9 stents in her heart so she takes life leisurely and gets her exercise in an indoor pool at a nearby retirement complex where she suspects their daughters are about to commit

Kellogg Fellows Invite Alumni

Park City is hosting the 30th reunion of the Kellogg Leadership Fellowship Class 6. At least 20 distinguished educators, scientists and nonprofit leaders will be attending.

These fine folks are all approaching the third phase of their lives and each has accomplished many wonderful leadership goals during their careers.

They have agreed to host a round-table discussion for Leadership Park City alumni on Friday, September 25 from 4-5:30 pm at Treasure Mountain Inn to discuss their lives and thoughts and what leadership challenges they look forward to as they enter their "golden years".

This is a wonderful opportunity open to all alumni and significant others. More details will follow in a future newsletter.

Gerber (20) and Nann Worel (15) who plan to run for seats in the next election.
