Over 20 Years & Still Connecting

What's Up With Claudia McMullin (8)

Born in Schenectady, NY, Claudia McMullin (8) lived in New York City's Upper West Side prior to moving to Park City in June of 99. Several things converged at just the right time to create a major lifestyle change. She wasn't looking forward partnering in a Wall Street law firm or her mind was open to other options.

"I reconnected with my cousin, Eileen Mullane (Co-owner of Right At Home Consignment Shop) at my brother's wedding. I visited her in Park City and within 2 years had quit my job, sold my apartment and moved here."

She'd enjoyed the city life for 17 years and had a great time but was ready for an outdoors lifestyle. What better place than Park City?

Claudia has been a member of the 2008 and 2012 County Council and recently announced this is her last year. "The best part of serving has been working with my fellow Council members and the great Summit County staff over the past 8 years. Also being on the ground floor of creating an organization lead by a Council/Manager (rather than County Commission), and elevating the quality of services provided. Today, I firmly believe that Summit County has the finest staff and elected officials of any county or city in the state. I am very proud of that."

With all she has experienced as a councilperson, she can still choose a day that stands out. "My absolute favorite day on Council was the day we first issued marriage licenses to gay couples. I was the Chair of the Council then and ran to the Courthouse at 7am to give out roses to all the couples as they got their marriage licenses. It was so touching and wonderful to see all that love and joy to finally be able to be legally married in the state of Utah. I will never forget that morning."

As Claudia retires from Council, there will be some things left to be accomplished by her successors. But if she could wave a magic wand and accomplish just one more major task...she would. "I would solve the traffic congestion on 224 and 248 and connect I-80, 140, 224 and 248 with rapid transportation."

Claudia, Hugo and Vic

If you know Claudia, it won't take you long to guess what will soon be occupying the majority of her time. You may have noticed there is a HUGO COFFEE sign looming large at the Kimball Junction Visitors' Information Center. That's because HUGO is a great fit for the VIC. Prior to opening HUGO COFFEE, Claudia often used the VIC as a meeting place with her clients and constituents. "I went there because of the beautiful views, great light (my over-50 eyes could actually read a document in there), and the fact that you weren't on top of each other with everyone listening to your conversation. When I heard that Silver Bean was not renewing its lease and was interested in selling its equipment...I thought...Why not? I can do that."

Time for another life change. "I knew there was tons of potential and really did not want to practice law anymore so...I just went for it!"

The venture has worked out beautifully. "I love making people happy and chatting up a storm. It's a perfect fit- surprisingly. It's like having a dinner party every day. Now, I am opening a second shop in the Summit Center as part of the Powderpaws Veterinary Clinic expansion and just launched Hugo Coffee Roasters. Roasting my own coffee is super fun and the quality is incredible."

Claudia came here for the outdoor lifestyle so even though she is having a blast with Hugo...an ideal day would have to include some nature. "A perfect Park City day would involve a hike, bike ride or ski in the morning, a massage in the afternoon, lunch or dinner with friends, a great bottle of wine and bed by 10."

Park City family includes her husband, Tim Douglas, cousin Eileen Mullane and her great friends. Two sons, Jeff Douglas and Ron Douglas live in Salt Lake and Brad Douglas is in Denver. Claudia has a sister in Oakland and lots of BFFs back in New York.

A member of Leadership Park City Class 8, Claudia's fondest memory of her year involved that "outdoor" life. "Bonding with Geoff Buchheister as my partner on the ropes course is something I'll never forget. We've been fast friends ever since."

The Leadership program was good for Claudia and Claudia has been good for the program. "I attribute all that I have done in Park City to Leadership. I met the finest people who inspired me to serve - on Planning Commission for 5 years and County Council for 8. But for Leadership Park City...I might have just remained a boring attorney. So thank you, Myles Rademan and Lisa Cilva Ward and everyone in Class 8!"

We are proud of Claudia for being yet another outstanding leader. We thank her for her service to the community and wish her continued success with her Hugo projects.
