Positive Influences in Park City

Five of our Leadership Park City alumni were recently included in a list of the top 40 most influential Parkites by Park City Magazine.

Meeche White (2) came to Park City with a dream of helping disabled people of all ages participate actively in life. That dream developed into the National Abilities Center....a dream come true not only for Meeche but for everyone lifted up by the spirit of NAC.

Dana Williams (2) a popular 3-term Mayor beginning in 2002, worked tirelessly to point Park City in the right direction with issues such as affordable housing, environmental awareness, green initiatives and open space.

Insa Riepen (15) Executive Director of Recycle Utah, has been working since 1999 to educate and train our community in the art of recycling. Under her direction, the center has greatly expanded not only in size and capacity but by developing outreach into the schools.

Kimberly Kuehn (13) has been a driving force in Park City since 2001 when she arrived with her positive energy and creative spirit that gave us, among other fun events, Howl-O-Ween and Park Silly Sunday Market.

Dixie Geisdorf (3) co-founded the Park City Education Foundation and served as publisher of Park City Magazine from 2006-2011. Dixie passed away last year but her legacy lives on!

Congrats to these special people and all of you other outstanding, active alumni who continue to make a positive difference in our community. Leadership Park City alumni....ROCK!
