Live PC... Lead PC

In true form, Barbara enjoying all Park City has to offer.

What's Up With Andrew Cohen?

Andrew Cohen (27) Please welcome Andrew Cohen as our newest board member and membership chair for LPCA! Andrew will be leading the membership efforts with his goal to increase membership along with adding value for your membership dues. He will be reaching out to all Leadership Park City graduates and Alumni members to understand how to increase the “value” of their membership. A Florida native, Andrew retired from an Entrepreneur technology career to Park City 9 years ago. Since arriving, he has been an active member of the community. You may have met Andrew through his leadership at the Egyptian Theatre and Park City Museum. He is also heard on KPCW and he may have helped you on the lifts at Deer Valley Resort. Andrew is passionate about Park City and was a graduate of LPC Class 27.

What stands out as a memorable lesson or two from your time in Leadership?

The Inclusive Leadership training with Kilo Zamora pushed my limits providing an understanding how to lead with empathy towards diversity, inclusion and equity. Realizing this is a moving and evolving issue, I felt uncomfortable yet, better equipped to meet this important workplace challenge. Also, our time with city representatives from Aspen, Crested Butte & Jackson gave me insight into what Park City will be evolving too due to our destination success. This Resort Towns Facing Vexing Challenges session gave us a 5 year outlook into the potential changes to vex Park City.

Where did you go for your city tour and what was your biggest take-away?

Due to COVID, we did not have a city tour in 2021.

What is your vision for Leadership as both an alumni and a new board member?

As membership chair, my goal is to increase the VALUE of membership held by the Alumni. Educational events, networking activities, and exclusive experiences will be the building blocks of membership. Because Leadership is an evolutionary tool that always needs sharpening, we will focus to provide in these areas for our membership.

How do you bring leadership skills to the boards you serve on in Park City?

I believe Leadership is about being a doer! When I was a CEO, I recognized employees are paid to follow. When I started serving on non-profit boards, I understood that Leadership it is very different. Many join boards and serve passively as a director/trustee. The opportunity to develop as a leader is to take an executive position on that board. Leading a board of volunteers, with diverse and strong personalities towards a common mission, is the ultimate test of good leadership. Thereby allowing for personal growth and true leadership development.

We're Looking For a Few Good Class Liaisons!

Would you like to stay in touch with the amazing people you met through LPC? Do you want to continue to grow, improve your leadership skills, and continue to be a vibrant part of our community?

Then consider becoming a Class Liaison and help the Leadership Park City Alumni Association reach out to our alumni about upcoming events and opportunities. We need a few members from each of the 28 LPC classes to act as liaisons between their classmates and LPCAA Board to help get information about events and opportunities. If you are interested, please contact Shay Blackley at shayblackley@gmail.com.

LPCAA Website Issues

The LPCAA website, leadershipcca.org, is undergoing a redesign to become more vibrant and user-friendly. Many of you have received emails from our Membership Coordinator, Drew Cohen, and may have found difficulties renewing or joining LPCAA through our payment portal.

If you have had issues making your payment, please contact Drew directly at andrew@cohenfamily.us.

Leadership Park City Alumni Association Call For Secretary

Here is your chance to make a difference and get involved with LPCAA! We are looking for a new Secretary to join the LPCAA Board.

Duties of the Secretary include attending and keeping minutes of quarterly meetings and actions of the Board of Directors and members, and to prepare and maintain other records and information. Please fill out the attached application and send to LPCAA President, Sue Ann Kern, sak@sueannkern.com.
